1982 Carontawan Mansfield State College

Mansfield, PA Volume 64

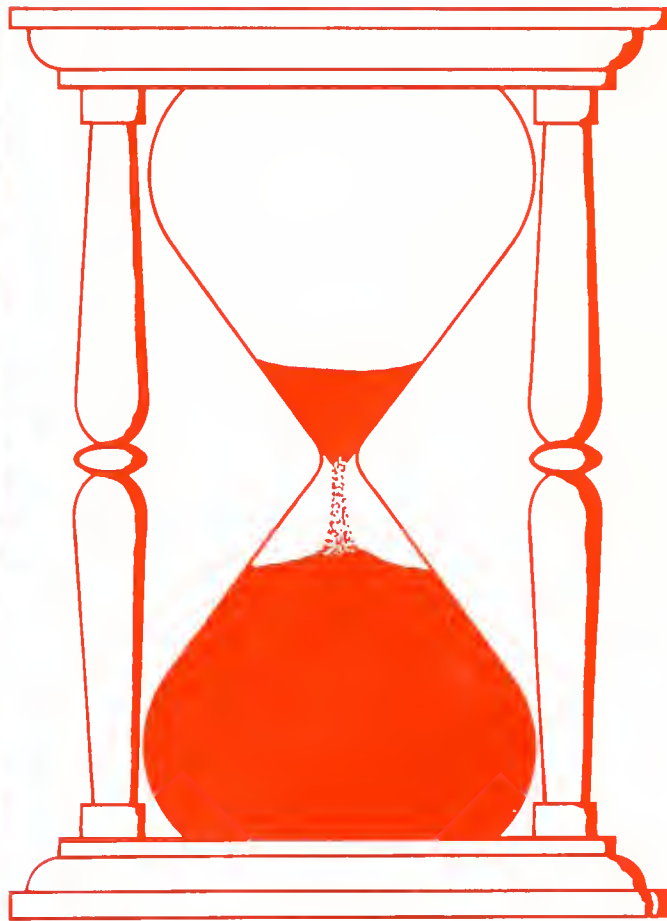

Where is Yesterday?
In our minds
and only there,
the kindergarten classmates,
the first dates,
the proms,
the graduations;
they live on as long
as we let them
(satisfying the desire for regression).

Another School Year

The signs of fall are upon us as summer is coming to a close. Now is the time when many of us will be returning to school. Whether it is a high school or a college, we are given a chance to improve our lives by furthering our education. For most of us this return to school marks a return to our second home. While for others it is an excursion into the unknown world of dorm life. Whether you are a Senior or a Freshman, your days at MSC are going to be filled with fun, excitement, and lots of work. Live each day to the fullest and remember that there is no place like "the little town on a big hill."

1. The "Price of Toga County" can be summed up in three words: Mansfield State College. 2. The quietness of the summer months has overcome the campus at MSC. 3. Summer is has already hit the dorms as pictured here where the warm air draws many of us out the windows. 4. Moving in day seems to be the thrill of every college student's life.

1. Sometimes even the most out of the way places make for the best studying 2. Very often you can see students just taking it easy in the shade of the trees around campus. 3 Freshman Orientation during the summer gives the new students a time to find out exactly what they are getting themselves into. 4 As the fall months approach so does the beginning of another school year when the campus will again become alive with life.

1. Mansfield answers to Lawrence Welk (Brian Dix) 2. Whew! Finally finished my last final 3. Can't it be a future Rembrandt? 4. Traci Godfrey gives us her idea of what she thinks of the other team 5. Tammy Watson tells prospective students and their parents about college life and the campus of MSC

1 Is this required material for English Lit, Mr. Schofield wonders? 2 Coach Bottigheri wonders if perhaps this is what they mean by an "excedrin PM headache"? 3. Sure Scott, I have a pencil you can borrow to take Dr. Parks Test 4 I'd like my fifth drop card please. 5 Could you tell me why you are digging up the President's flowers?

1 Homecoming Queen 1981, Kathy Glover 2 Winnie the Pooh says "Have a happy weekend at MSC" 3 Steve Bernosky and Sue Windbeck ride atop the Phi Sigma Pi float in the Homecoming Parade 4 Mickey Mouse welcomes everyone to MSC's homecoming festivities 5 ZTA really knows how to get into a "spotty" situation

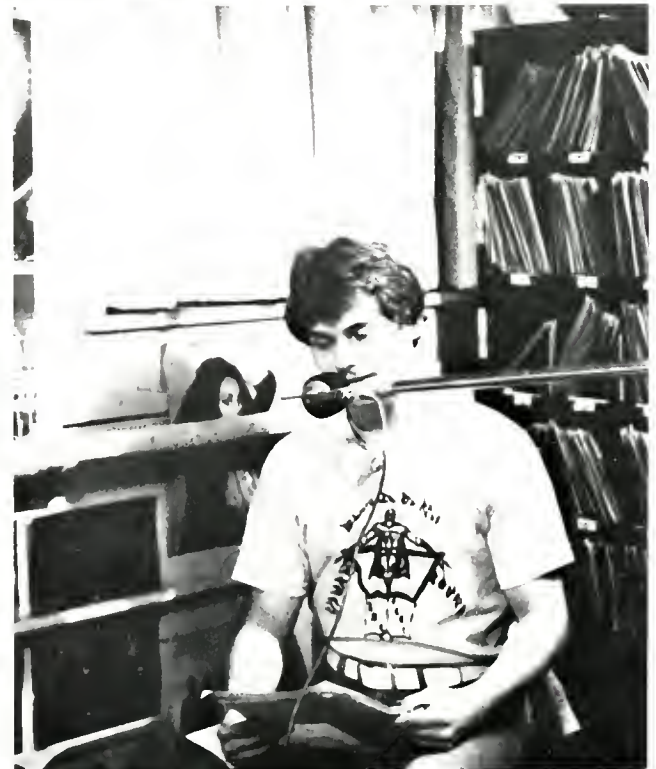

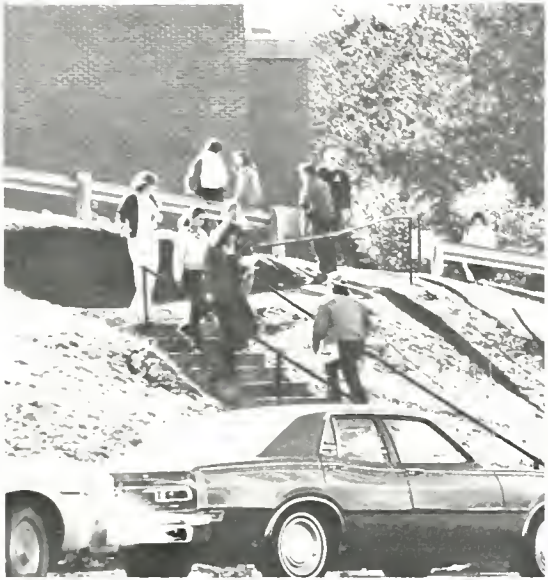

1. The Mountie Band shows us the sights and sounds of their 1981 half-time show. 2. 4th touchdown today for Mansfield makes it MSC 21, Bloomsburg O. 3. Janet Taylor and her escort, David Klopp, ride through the homecoming parade.

1. Looks hopeless, doesn't it? 2. A familiar sight are students making their way to Be Khap ha for classes. 3. We're sorry. We will never make fun of you that again. 4. A good gallon of Mr. Donut's coffee would do these seeds good. 5. Chet brings us the various bits of news from WNTE.

1 Dormlife does some crazy things to some peoples' minds. 2 Residents of Hemlock soak up the sun. 3. Blank faces can mean only one thing a weekend at MSC! 4 Does this mean that we are no longer a dry town? 5 "Yes I do believe you are suffering from a case of Collegitis. The remedy would be to take a weekend off from college work and partying."

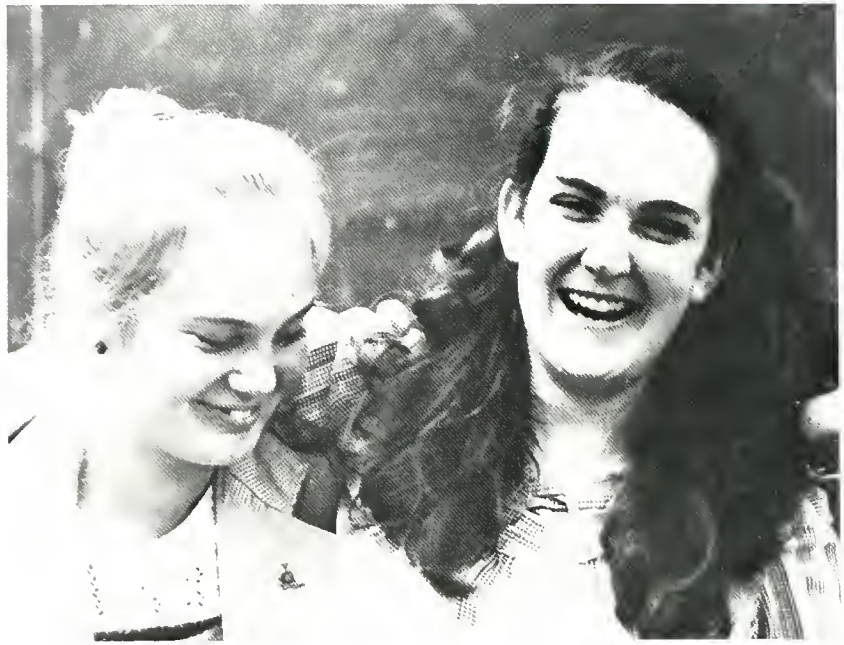

1. Andrea and Guer smile for the camera during the homecoming game against Cheney. 2. Birds aren't the only sights to watch at MSC during the summer. 3. The infamous 'Mauntie Crrunch!' 4. A welcome change to any classroom is studying in the great outdoors. 5. Coaches Schintzius and Herndon sit on the edge of their seats as the women's volleyball team is just a moment away from victory.

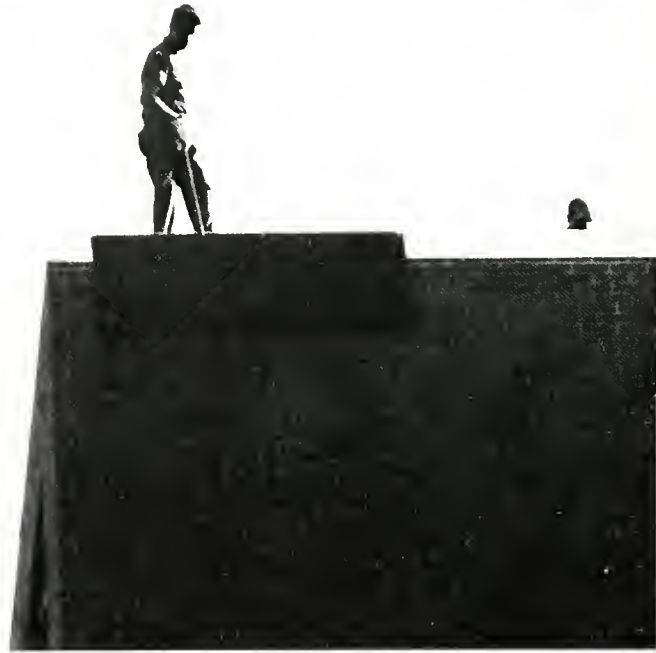

1 Mountie spirit can be found everywhere on campus as well as on the women's field hockey team. 2 Is this one of Noel Schwartz's dance classes? 3 These students catch a donut break between classes. 4. President Travis welcomes all at the beginning of the homecoming festivities.

1 Buddies Forever! 2 A studious student? This can't be MSC! 3 MSC takes you to heights unknown... Literally! 4 Music majors do it in the practice room! 5 Is this what the professional experience is all about?

1 Tom Brotzman takes a break from studying to "ham up" to the camera. 2. Summer orientation staff, 1981: Mark Jones, Tammy Walsh, Rick Edwards and Patty Pritchard. 3. Pinecrest has its affects on all of us. 4 Brian Swanhall "lets loose" in Steadman Theatre.

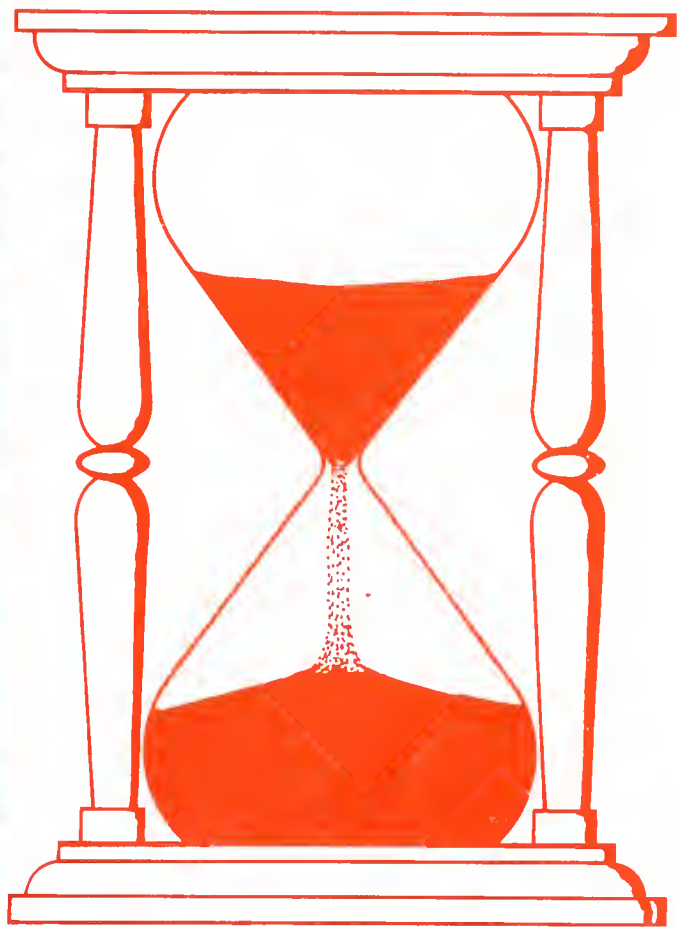

Today is where we are now;
this second.
The moments of joy,
of sadness,
of ecstasy,
happen as we blink our eyes.

“... to dream the impossible dream.”

On March 10-13th 1982 the sights and sounds of Man of La Mancha filled the air in Straughn Auditorium. The Music Department and the Speech, Communications, and Theatre Department can be proud of the job these students did in this production.

Greek Week May 10-14 1982

Every spring at about the same time all sorts of weird happenings begin to show on campus. No it is not an invasion from outerspace but the famed "Greek Week" at MSC. All of the social fraternities and sororities are involved with everything from pie eating contest to a chariot race.

"IT'S FUN TO BE GREEK."

The 1981 edition of the Mountie Marching Band entered the field with lots of new faces. INTRAMURAL SPORTS: A BIG HIT AT MSC

SPORTS — JOHN WHEELER AND MARK COSTELLO

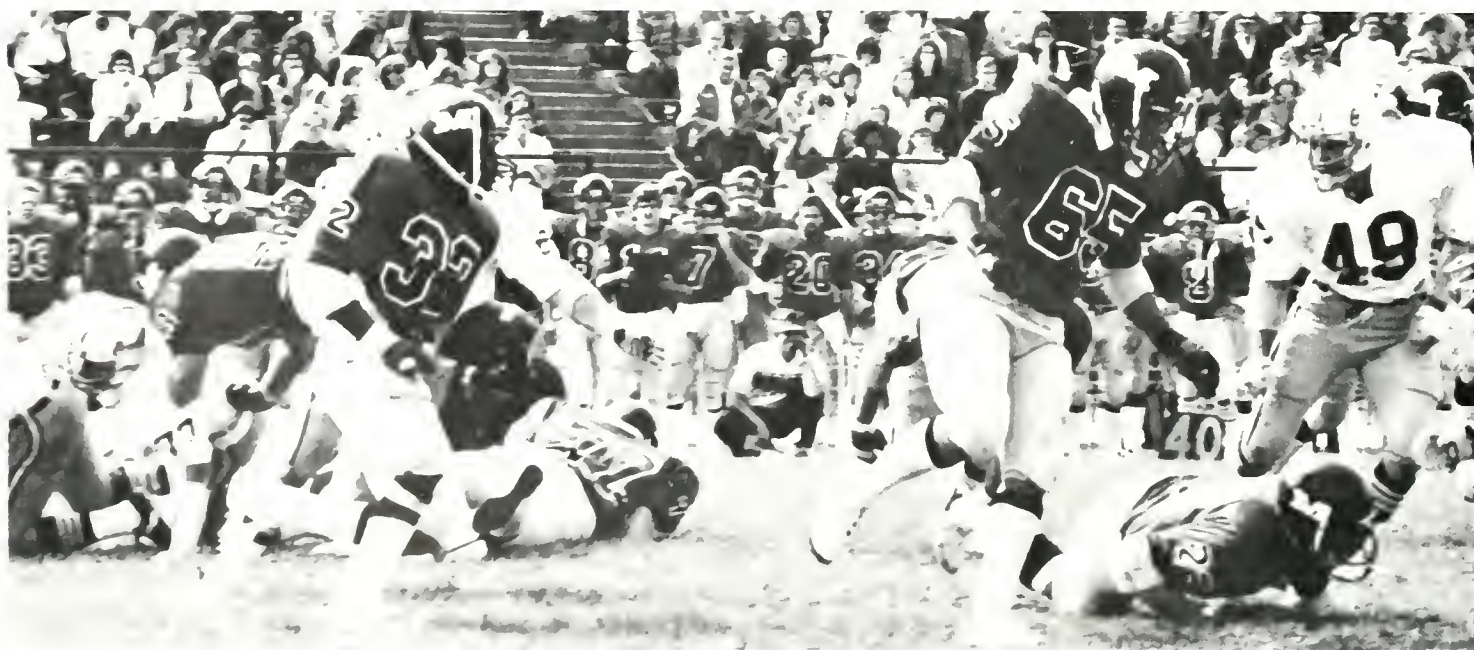

PRIDE HAS RETURNED TO MSC IN THE FORM OF FOOTBALL!!

The 1981 football season proved to be the best yet for the "Mountaineers" of Mansfield. They ended the season with a 3-2 record and second place in the conference. With the number one defense in the conference the 1982 season proves to be even greater for the Mansfield State College football team.

1. The "Mountaineers" prepare to meet the next defensive move by the opposing team 2. Coaches Bottiglieri and Bianco scope the opposing team during warm-ups 3. Duane Sowell carries the ball toward yet another "Mountaineer" touchdown.

WEST COAST BOUND! For the second year in a row, this was the exclamation of MSC's women's volleyball team. The team ended the season with a 29-6 record, which didn't allow them to play in the PSAC finals, but did qualify them to represent the northeastern coast in the finals in Sacramento, California. The team didn't come away big winners, but we are really proud of the team and their coaches Daisy Herndon and Hugh Schintzius.

1. Coach Schintzius leads his team out on the floor for some pre-game warm ups. 2. Judy Klinge is caught in the process of serving another winning point for her team. 3. 1981 Women's Volleyball Team (left to right) Bonnie Baker, Lisa Little, Stephanie Ebner. Row 2: Lisa Farley, Kathy Wertz, Judy Klinge, Sandy Stivers. Row 3: Coach Herndon, Kathy Moehring, Lisa Bower, Kim Daniels, Barb Johnson, Coach Schintzius, Kathy Shufelt.

1981 VOLLEYBALL TEAM

1. MSC's team prepares to receive the ball from yet another opponent. 2. Kathy Welty sets the ball for yet another spiking attempt. 3. Bump, Set, Spike, Beat 'em.

1. Coach Herndon seems to breathe a sign of relief after her team wins another close contest. 2. Barb Johnson goes on the offense again as she prepares to spike the ball at her opponents. 3. It seems as though it was a well tried effort which apparently, didn't work. 4. This banner tells all of us what MSC's volleyball team is.

Tomorrow promises,
confuses; anything
that we make it.
Dreams of stardom,
money,
a hopeful wish or two,
the people we will meet,
(like, love or dislike);
their reality is just a moment away.
They can be realized within each breath of ours.

SENIORS — GAIL BENDER
GRADUATION — JOE MARESCO

CARONTAWAN — 1982

Message:

Time has a way of establishing values, clarifying perspectives, and defining identity.

The things we think of as being crucially important today or as of least consequence, often change values dramatically with the passage of time.

We are, each of us, the center of a growing experience which develops within time. This is another way of saying that we are the sum total of our history, of the inter-action of our being with our environment.

For each of you, Mansfield State College has been a part of your environment and, thus, of your history and of your self, now and in the future.

For each of us as we interact with our environment, we develop our selves and we also alter and effect our environment and the other selves that are part of that environment.

Mansfield State College, its professors, administrators, and staff are forever part of your growing and developing person. You should equally realize that you have affected the community of Mansfield State College during the time you spent here.

I truly hope and believe that years into the future when you have occasion to glance at these words you will recognize the value that your experience here has contributed to your life.

With warmest best wishes,

JANET L. TRAVIS

When the sands of the hourglass finally sift into the yestermourns of tomorrow, you as a Senior will have mixed emotions about leaving Mansfield. This has been your home away from home for four years and now it's finally coming to a close.

May 22, 1982 marks the closing of doors on your college days, but opens many new doors into the future. Good luck Seniors as you venture forth into the world of success.

I would like to thank the members of my staff for all the hard work and time they put into this edition of the Carontawan. There are four people who I owe a great deal to and they are Joe Maresco (our fearless advisor), Abe Orlick (Davor Photography), and Mike and Barb Gilroy (our yearbook rep and his wife), without the help these people had given me many of my questions would still be unanswered and you wouldn't have a book now. To sum everything up very neatly this is what I want you to know:

“TO THE MOST DEAREST FRIENDS
ANYONE COULD ASK FOR. YOU HELPED ME TO OVERCOME SOME VERY BIG OBSTACLES IN MY YEAR
AS EDITOR. THANK YOU FROM THE BOTTOM OF MY HEART.”

Thanks again to all the persons that helped in one way or another to put this book together.

Till We Meet Again in the Future

Best Wishes,

Remember the first time you came to college? You probably thought that it was a hopeless cause, and that you would never fit into the group. But as the days passed, you met more people. . . .

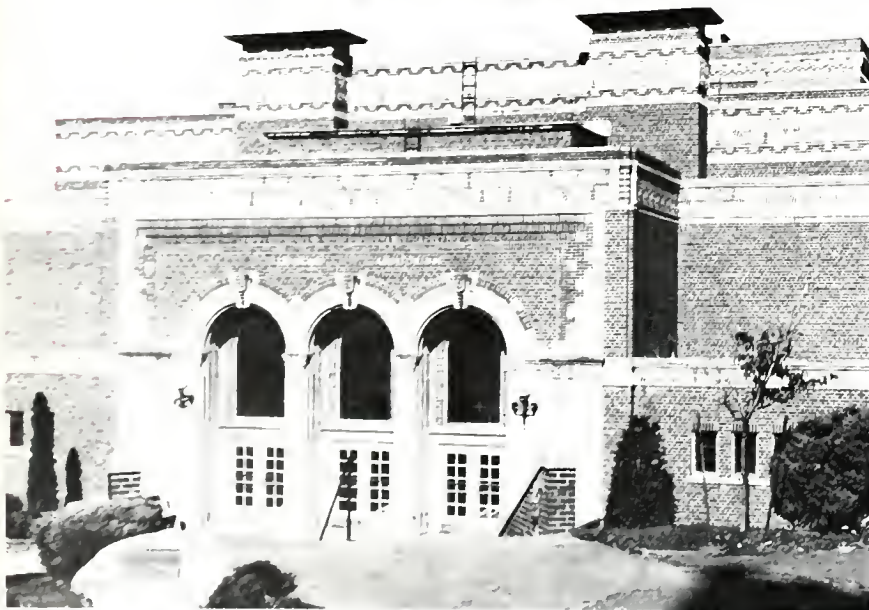

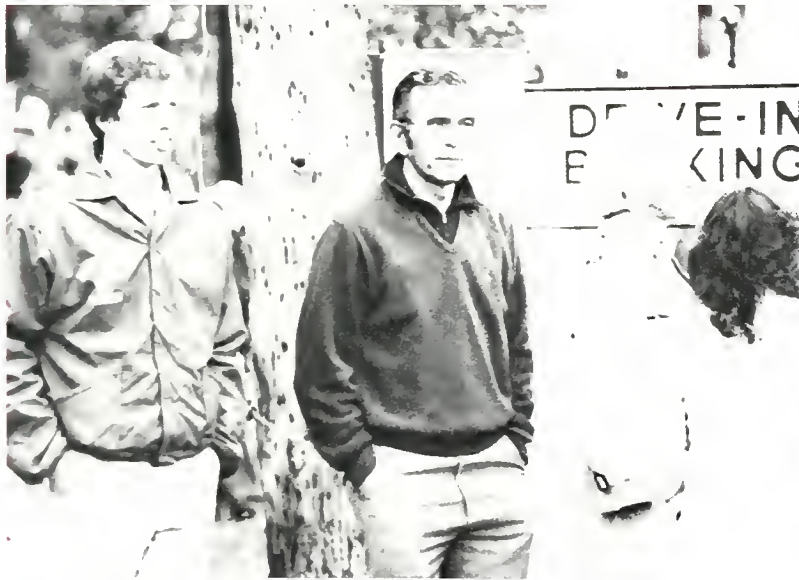

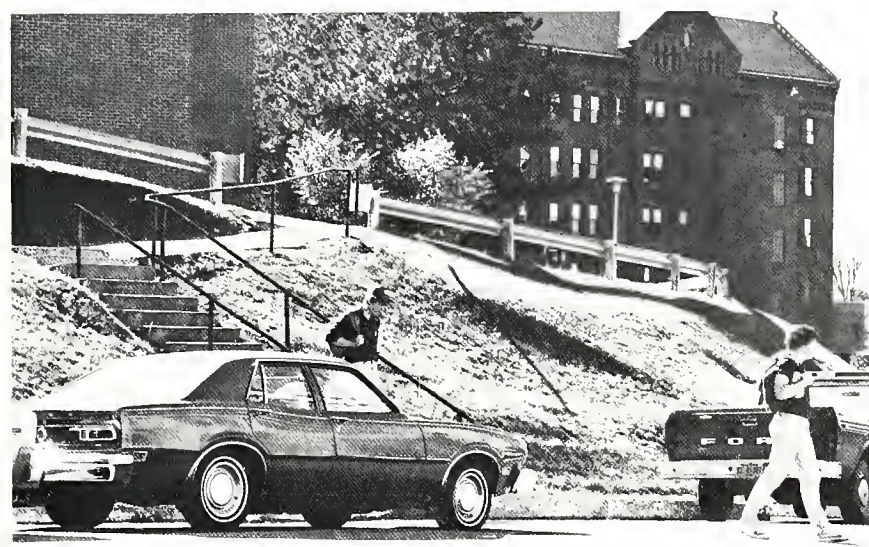

... became a little more comfortable with the "college student" status put upon you, and settled back, working toward your goals that you conceived way, way, way back in high school.

Many of us here at MSC felt the same way too about attending college. Now that you are Seniors, you probably have that same feeling you did when you were an "innocent freshman" coming into the college world.

But after awhile, you enjoyed what you were doing; working at bettering the goals that you obtained while at MSC.

As you have seen the new freshman grow, you remember all the troubles and the great times you had when you first arrived. You understand all of them now, and are able to understand their fresh vitality. You, in a way, might envy them, yet you are glad that your college days are over. You start looking forward to your "own" life.

As you take a last look at the MSC campus, realize that you are always welcome back to visit. We always welcome alumni, and look forward to them returning. Take your last glimpses, your last thoughts, and take the knowledge that you have gained here and show the world what you're made of. Leave us with that successful attitude which only Mansfield State College can give.

As you depart, remember that you are always welcome
not only to our campus, ...

... but also to the "little town on a big hill".

A photograph of a large white cylindrical tank and a smaller white structure behind a line of trees at sunset. The sky is a bright, hazy yellow, and the foreground is a dark, grassy field. The text is centered in the lower half of the image.

Our lives
are cycles of emotion.
Our yesterdays,
sifted through the hour glass,
are set in place.
Our todays
quickly slip into the sands of oblivion.
Our tomorrows
too quickly aspire to reality.
